Fund Manager Comment

As per World Bank,

"The energy price index fell by 3.9% in August, driven by an 8.8% drop in U.S. natural gas and a 3.6% decline in crude oil prices. The non-energy price index edged up 0.7%. Food prices eased 0.9%, beverages surged 7.7%, and raw materials were broadly unchanged. Fertilizer prices rose 1.1%. Metal prices slipped 0.3%, while precious metals gained 0.9%."

"Faltering economic growth is coinciding with ample oil supply in ways that are expected to drop global commodity prices to their lowest level of the 2020s, according to the World Bank's latest Commodity Markets Outlook."
